The perfect starter lodge with an expensive feel, the Faraday is the epitome of hygge (pronounced hu-gue) - which is Danish for 'mood of cosiness and comfort and feelings of wellness and contentment'. Throughout, you'll see hints of black accents to give the home a boutique, modern feel, there is room for all your family and friends. Are you ready for the grand tour? With calming, warm furnishings and textures throughout, you can spend your evenings relaxing by the fire on the clever modular sofa or cooking up a storm in the kitchen. The kitchen has been designed as a social space, with plenty of seating and worktop space to entertain the family or put your baking skills to the test. The large dining table means you can enjoy holiday meals together or get the board games out for games night.
